1, Thou Brave Gen'ral Persh.....ing, your name does sound so dear, BUGLE CALL
2, When you sailed to Sis.....ter France the world was sur-prised, 3, Thy brave Persh-ing, brave Persh-ing the he..ro of to - day,
4, And when you will re - turn to your own na - tive shores,

He..
With
The Co

....ro of Chateau Thier-ry, whose heart does know no fear. Chateau Thier..ry you the finest army ev..er tramp-ed under God's blueskies And when you land..ed world's greatest ge..ne-ral, your noble records shine with fame You have taught those lumbia will welcome you, her son, with thundering cannon's roar When your ship ar-rived showed the Germans what you could do, With your unconquerable Yankee soldier boys loyal, over there the re-cep-tion you got, When they saw in Persh - ing that France could Huns a les-son they wont' for-get; Pershing's work was well done; our Eagle' is scream home America goes wild with joy When they see Jack Pershing a-board, our gal-lant-- brave and true,

not be lost,
ing it yet,
Mis-souri boy,
Hooray, for General Persh - iug, Thousands of times hoo.....ray,

The he-ro of Chateau Thier-ry, His nane is crowned with fame: He gave freedom to the world Which no one can deny; Our brave Pershing, America's pride and joy.
